

Our specialist partner, envoy furniture in Melbourne, teamed up with the architectural firm, futurespace, to set up financial advisory firm State Super Financial Services in Australia with ophelis docks.

The redesign of the working environment supports the strategic change process within the company. New retreat spaces have been created.

The project was nominated for the 2015 Australian Interior Design Award.

Photography: Danial Nash

